By FRED C. WEIGEL

With a promise to return to Palm Springs and the Desert area "about the end of January," President Dwight D. Eisenhower planned out of Palm Springs this morning at 7:45 a. m. after almost a week of relaxation and golf.

He was bid goodbye at the airport this morning by civic leaders, and answered that he "had a wonderful vacation" and added: "I'll be back in January, but this time not for just a few days . . . you'll have to kick me out."

The Washington Press Corps plane left Palm Springs at 7 a. m., a good hour before the Presidential plane took off.

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER arrived at Laughlin Air Force Base at noon today, traveled by car across the Texas border via the International Bridge at Del Rio where he changed to the car of Mexican President Lopez Mateos for the trip to the municipal building of Ciudad Acuna, where they attended a small reception and appeared jointly on a balcony. Later this afternoon the two presidents went to the residence of Dr. Juan Antonio Ortiz where they lunched and held an informal meeting to discuss bi-lateral problems between the two countries.

Hunt for Water For Car Leads To Drowning

MECCA — A quest for water for an overheated automobile led to the drowning of John Franklin Gandy, 25, who disappeared into the irrigation canal near here at 7:15 p. m. Sunday, the Indian sheriff's office reported today.

Gandy had parked his car on Highway 195 near a bridge over the irrigation canal, and walked down to the canal bank for water. On the way up the steep slope, he slipped and plunged backwards into the water, sheriff's Lt. Vernon Woodward said.

Gandy, described by relatives who watched helplessly from the bank as a "poor swimmer," sank as he struggled against the silty-covered canal sides. Searchers along the canal and probes with grappling hooks have failed to recover the body to 10 a. m. today.

GIRL, 14, DIVES IN POOL TO SAVE 3-YEAR-OLD BOY

A 14-year-old girl became a heroine, and a three-year-old boy was saddened at a birthday party Saturday afternoon at the home of the Edwin Buckheims, 560 Vista Oro, honoring four-year-old Kristina Buckheim. The boy, Greg Hestman, while playing accidentally fell into the swimming pool, and Miss Marylyn Riordan, who was assisting the mother, dove in after him-party clothes and all. The boy was brought out—none the worse for the experience—but he was crying. Mrs. Buckheim hastened to comfort him and was successful as she was able to replace his party hat and whistle, which he had lost in the swimming pool plunge.

UNITED STATES SENATOR Thomas H. Kuchel headed a roster of top-flight California and area Republicans who spoke to a giant standing-room-only rally in the Tennis Club Saturday evening, promoting the Nixon-Lodge ticket for Nov. 8. Senator Kuchel, speaking with Palm Springs Republican Assembly president Edgar L. McCoubrey and State Senator candidate Lee Backstrand at right, hammered away on theme that Republicans are "party of independence" and social progress, as well as key to sustaining and enlarging areas of American influence and security. Local, national candidates spoke to cheering audience. (Desert Sun Photo)

KUCHEL SAYS RECORD EARNS RIGHT TO ASK VOTE NOV. 8

California's Republican Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel climaxed a standing-room-only rally of the Palm Springs Republican Assembly Saturday evening in the Tennis Club by emphasizing that the Republican record "as the party of the people for 100 years" has earned the right for party workers to ask voters to endorse the national Republican ticket Nov. 8. Citing the record of the current administration in "the first civil rights legislation in 80 years" and increasing national security, expanding economy and slowing of inflation, Senator Kuchel termed the Republican party the "party of freedom."

IN A SOLID frontal attack on the Senate voting record of Sen. John Kennedy, Presidential Democratic candidate, Senator Kuchel termed him "all things to all people." He charged Kennedy has taken "all sides on civil rights, foreign policy, farm affairs, and our state of national defense."

The California Senator slammed into the Kennedy-Johnson civil rights stand, charging both "voted against bringing the bill onto the Senate floor." He explained the Democrats voted to "bury the bill" in the Senate Judiciary Committee, headed by Sen. James Eastland, of Mississippi.

SEN. KUCHEL attacked the Kennedy rigid party plan — "a touch of Brannan with overtones of Henry Wallace" — and cited storage costs on surplus as $1,000 per minute. He pointed out the Republican program of flexible support would be "keyed to requirements."

Senator Kuchel attacked the Kennedy federal compulsory health insurance as overlooking "more than 4 million people not under social security," and mandatory for those eligible who "may prefer some other program." He emphasized that "we should make available to any persons over 65 needed protection — but it should be an open choice."

EDGAR L. MCCOUBREY, president of the Palm Springs Republican Assembly, read a letter to the meeting from President Eisenhower who praised the "progressive and responsible" party organization. The President wrote "I wholeheartedly endorse the Nixon-Lodge ticket" and forwarded a $300 contribution for the local campaign raised by the Chief Executive from his associates in the desert headquarters at La Quinta. Robert Keith Gray, secretary to the Cabinet, spoke in behalf of the Nixon-Lodge ticket, following District 29 Congressional candidate Charles Jameson to the rostrum. Gray emphasized that "we are confident, but don't be complacent." The best campaigning is "neighbor-to-neighbor," he said.

CHARLES JAMESON, 29th District Congressional candidate, termed the election "crucial," to "determine what kind of a nation we will have to leave our children."

Jameson attacked incumbent Congressman D. S. Saund's voting record as a "stand with those who favor socialistic ideas."

Vice President Asks 'Apology'

ABOARD NIXON TRAIL (UPI) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon assailed Sen. John F. Kennedy with mounting anger today on everything from a "lying" brother to personal wealth.

The Republican presidential candidate through his press secretary, brought the issue of religion squarely to the forefront of the campaign by demanding that his Democratic opponent "publicly reprimand his brother Robert F. Kennedy, for 'lies' about alleged Republican distribution of anti-Catholic literature. Kennedy is a Roman Catholic.

THE VICE PRESIDENT, campaigning stormily across Pennsylvania in a series of railroad whistlestops, taunted Kennedy for his family wealth, saying the Democratic had espoused a platform which would cost the American people $15 billion annually in additional federal expenditures — "a whale of a lot of money — even . . . to a Kennedy."

And in a continuing fight over the best approach to Fidel Castro's Cuba, the GOP standard-bearer accused Kennedy of switching policy under guise of claiming to have been misquoted.

"THIS IS ANOTHER case of your speaking first and thinking afterwards," Nixon said in a telegram to Kennedy over their projected fifth TV debate, "a habit which is a very dangerous one for a man who is asking the American people to elect him as commander-in-chief of all the armed forces of this nation."

The Democratic candidate's brother Sunday in Washington said Republican organizations in San Diego, Calif., and other points in the country were "issuing anti-Catholic literature and doing it quite openly."

Louise E. Head Services Set

A Requiem service will be held at 10 a. m., Thursday, in St. Paul's in the Desert Episcopal Church. The Rev. Frederick Barnhill, rector of St. Paul's, will officiate at that service.

As Nixon's 16-car special train pulled into York, Pa., early this morning, the vice president's press secretary, Herbert G. Klein, denounced the younger Kennedy's statements as untrue.

Azusa Man, 80, Killed in Desert Center Crash

DESERT CENTER — An 80-year-old Azusa man was killed five miles west of here at approximately 3:30 p. m., Saturday, when the pickup truck in which he was riding crashed head-on into a car in an attempt to avoid collision with a car which had squeezed through in what the California Highway Patrol termed "an unsafe pass."

Dead was Levi Edsworth Palmer, who was riding with Helmut A. Samson, 27, of Azusa. Samson, attempting to avoid a car which swerved toward him, braked hard and swerved onto the road shoulder. The vehicle went out of control, skidded across the road into the path of a car driven by Johnny Gerald Triplett, of Ft. Campbell, Ky., the CHP reported.

In serious condition at Casita Hospital, Indio, are Samson; Gloria Samson, 18; William Steinbrink, 54, of Hollywood, and Lawrence Licht, 42, of Scottsdale, Ariz., passenger in the rear of the Samson pickup.

The vehicle thought to have set the stage for the crash was described by the CHP as "unknown."

A founder of the Hollywood Bowl, Mrs. Head moved here in 1950, where she continued her civic activities. She died in Desert Hospital Saturday, after a heart attack. Survivors include her husband, Floyd F. Head, Palm Springs, and a sister, Mrs. George Lindsay, Portland, Ore.

The family has requested memorial gifts be made to the St. Paul's Altar Society, or to the Heart Fund.

ALL TREAT AND NO TRICK is this happy jack-o-bore. Potato chips become colorful canapes for lantern filled with soft drinks for a teeners' jam - this Halloween occasion.

Use Chips for Halloween

Sh! . . . Here's the charm to keep over-size hobgoblins happily indoors on Halloween: provide them liberally with Hi-Fi, potato chips and soft drinks. Let them flip - the records, the soft drink caps and the chips - to their hearts' content.

A colorful refreshment table can emphasize the occasion. Dress up part of the potato chip supply as canapes made with flavorful cheese meat and fish, decorated with bits of black and stuffed olives, and green peppers.

Let a giant Jack-o-lantern be the host for the soft drinks; a pail of ice, hidden inside will keep them at their snappy - cold best. "Jack" is easy to fashion: first form a foundation by wrapping the pail with fluffed-out cotton batting or crushed tissue paper. Cover this with orange crepe paper, creased at intervals to suggest a pumpkin's segments, and stretch between creases to give a plump effect. To put it on the pail, first tie the paper inside out around the top of the pail with string, then drape it down loosely over the cotton or tissue padding, turn it under and tape it to the bottom of the pail. Cut eyes, nose and mouth out of stiff white paper and fasten them in place with dabs of rubber cement, or straight pins. Fill the pail with ice cubes and soft drink bottles just before the party begins.

The potato chip canapes are easy. First soften cream cheese with carbonated beverage to give it a smooth flavor base. Divide it into parts and add other savory ingredients, providing a variety of spreads. Mound a teaspoonful of each in the center of large potato chips. Add a final accent of flavor and color with slices of olive, peppers, speck of parsley, pimento, anchovy paste or what you wish.

Canape Fillings
1 8-oz. pkg. cream cheese
1/4 cup carbonated beverage (any flavor)

Put cream cheese in smallest beater bowl; blend in carbonated beverage, a little at a time. Beat at low speed until blended, then at medium or high speed until mixture is stiff enough to form creases. Yield about 1-1 1/2 cups.

With liverwurst: Blend 1/4 cup softened cream cheese with 1/4 cup mashed liverwurst and 2 tablespoons minced onion.

With blue cheese: Blend together 1 part blue cheese and 3 parts softened cream cheese.

With anchovy paste: Blend small amount of anchovy paste with softened cream cheese to taste; add minced celery.

Rose-Colored Chicken...Prize Winner

This modern adaptation of an old-world recipe is a prize winner from the National Chicken Cooking Contest held annually for the past 13 years on the Delmarva peninsula. Enjoy its tasty goodness. It makes an economical main dish.

Fried chicken satisfies the robust appetites of brisk fall days. Bring autumn to your table with this luscious delicacy, fried to a paprika-laden goodness and topped with a colorful sauce of tomato paste and sour cream . . . Rose-Colored Chicken.

You'll need a 2 1/2 to 3 pound broiler-fryer for this recipe, which makes four or five servings. Serve it with hot fluffy rice, or old-world style with dumplings or noodles. A green vegetable and tossed salad complete the meal.

Rose-Colored Chicken
1 broiler-fryer, 2 1/2 to 3 pound, cut up
4 tablespoons (1/4 cup) butter or margarine
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper, scant
1 1/2 tablespoons paprika
1 cup thinly sliced onion
1/2 cup finely cut green pepper
1/2 cup tomato paste
1/2 pint (1 cup) dairy sour cream

Heat butter or margarine in skillet, moderately hot. Place chicken pieces in skillet, skin side down. Meanwhile, combine salt, pepper and paprika. Sprinkle half the seasonings over chicken; turn chicken and sprinkle with remaining seasonings. Cook over low heat until lightly browned, about 10 minutes, turning pieces as necessary. Sprinkle onion and green pepper over chicken. Cover and simmer until fork-tender, about 30 minutes.

Remove chicken and keep hot. Drain off any excess fat from skillet . . . pour in tomato paste and sour cream and blend well. Do not cook after sour cream is added. Return chicken to sauce, or serve sauce separately. Makes 4 to 5 servings.

COUNTY AIRPORTS SUBJECT FOR MEET

First meeting in reviewing the county airport policies and organization was held this week, with the Riverside County Airports Commission joining with County Administrative Officer Robert T. Anderson and Supervisor George Berkey.

To further discussion on stimulation of industrial growth at airports, to engage in planning for the future and to review operating policies, the commission will invite the general manager of the Board of Trade, County Planning Director Tyler Sues and Anderson to its meeting at Hemet Nov. 22.

THE COMMISSION members, Eugene Best, John J. Mangel, Wayne Fisher, Dudley Steele and James Simpson, also set plans to request additional fund from the Board of Supervisors for airport development. Worthwhile and fully justified projects would return the investment several times over in payrolls, taxes and industry, it was pointed out.

Dear Abby...

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of a man who is slowly trying to give me the brush-off after I've been true to him for 18 years? We couldn't get married on account of family obligations on both sides.

He took me out last Thursday and rushed me home for no good reason. Then he said he wasn't going to do much on the week-end, but his car was gone and I didn't hear from him. He owes me $400 but he doesn't mention it. I've cried my eyes out and lost ten pounds in two weeks. Food sticks in my throat. He knows I'm lost without him. What do I do now?

BRUSHED OFF
DEAR BRUSHED: Collar the gentleman and calmly ask him what (and who) is new. Don't turn on the water works or go into hysterics if you want the truth. If it's the end of the line for you, it's better to know now than to throw more good years after bad. Brace yourself for a farewell to arms. His.

DEAR ABBY: I'm surprised nobody has formed a "sitters' union." I think it's terrible the way some sitters are taken advantage of, especially teen-age sitters. They should charge like this:

Group One: Well-behaved child. A dollar an hour.
Group Two: Problem child. Two dollars an hour.

Group Three: Impossible child. Three dollars an hour.
And sitters should charge by the child as well as the hour. Why should we take care of three wild children for the price of one?

WANTS TO ORGANIZE

DEAR ABBY: I am a boy who is 14. I have a brother who is 18. Ever since we were able to talk we have had to answer "Sir" to our dad. He thinks it is the polite way to talk but we feel like we are in the army. Do you think we ought to keep it up or not?

"IN THE ARMY"
DEAR IN: Yes, Sir!

DEAR ABBY: I have given my fraternity pin to my girl friend with plans for becoming engaged within the coming year. We have now reached the stage where we are close to each other's parents. My question is whether it is proper to address each other's parents as "Mom" and "Dad" or should we continue to call them "Mr." and "Mrs."?

CONFUSED
DEAR CONFUSED: Play it safe and call them "Mr." and "Mrs." until they ARE indeed "Mom" and "Dad."

CONFIDENTIAL TO LINDA: He is a graduate from the "kiss-and-tell" school of romance (magna cum laude), so if you sign up for his course, don't expect to be the exception in his collection.

For Abby's pamphlet, "What Teen-agers Want To Know," send 25c and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope in care of this paper.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "OUSTED EVE": Time will not solve your problem. Bring everything out into the open and have a showdown.

Baha'i Group In Evaluation Of UN Effort

UN Achievements Discussed by Local Baha'i Community

Achievements of the United Nations were discussed by Melvin Chester of the Los Angeles Baha'i Community at a meeting held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hendershot.

Speaking on "United Nations... Pattern for Peace," Chester pointed out the scientific and religious contributions made to the world by the United Nations since its inception in San Francisco in 1945.

CREATED AT THE end of a disastrous world war, the United Nations immediately began extensive programs to combat disease, educate illiterate people, provide food for the starving and other forms of material help. Spiritually, it proved itself an effective mediator between nations whose disagreements could catapult the world into war. Always it has stressed the idea of peoples being free to choose their own governments.

There is a striking parallel between the principles of the United Nations and the Baha'i World Faith, whose members now number millions and reside in over 250 countries and territories of the world, Chester said.

TAUGHT BY THE founder of their faith, Baha'u'llah, that "the world is one country and mankind its citizens," Baha'is believe that an era of world-wide peace is almost here but that it must be seriously sought after.

They look hopefully towards the International Court of Justice set up by the United Nations as a non-partisan court of appeal. This concept was clearly enunciated by Baha'u'llah, who stressed the necessity for regarding the welfare and freedom of all nations as equally important with that of one's own country.

FAST TRIP FOR WAL EMPLOYEE

England to Village: One Day!

From rain and floods in England to warm and dry Palm Springs in one day's time is the story of Vicki Wood, who will operate Western Air Lines new ticket office in El Mirador Hotel.

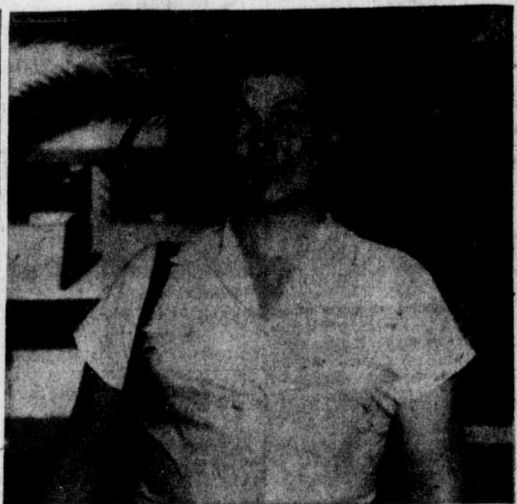

Miss Wood returned to Los Angeles from England on Sunday, where she visited her parents, and was immediately assigned to operate the new WAL office here.

A WAL employee for nearly nine years, she has previously been assigned to Los Angeles and Long Beach offices.

Miss Wood's father is a colonel in the British Army, and she has traveled extensively, being in India and China while he was stationed there. They left Hong Kong a month before it fell to the Japanese in 1941, and returned to England.

She attended London University and then spent three years in the British Navy before coming to this country 10 years ago. Since then she has made six trips back to visit her parents.

The El Mirador office will be open from 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., Monday through Friday, thru May.

Truman Issues New 'Charges'

DECATUR, Ala. (UPI)—Former President Truman accused President Eisenhower Friday night of lacking "guts," described Republicans as "bums," and charged that Vice President Richard Nixon speaks the truth only "by accident."

Truman called for prayer about the religious issue in the presidential campaign.

After a rough-and-tumble series of speeches in North Mississippi and Alabama, Truman headed today for Louisiana and more of the same.

Jury System Going

LAHORE, Pakistan (UPI)—The jury system will be eliminated from Pakistan's judicial system, according to Law Minister Mohammad Ibrahim.

He predicted substantial changes in line with recent Law Commission recommendations to expedite and economize court proceedings, particularly in the criminal procedure code.

EX-OFFICER, STAR HURLER TO RETURN TO VILLAGE POLICE

Neal Green, softball championship pitcher and city police officer for approximately three and a half years, will return to the Palm Springs police force Nov. 1, police chief August G. Kettmann announced.

Kettmann, who emphasized that "we are glad to get this competent and experienced officer back with us," explained Green will fill the vacancy of resigned detective Paul Smith.

Green joined the force Oct. 1, 1956, and resigned Jan. 20 this year. He had been in Hawaii in the interim. Chief Kettmann said Green has had experience in patrol, detective, and traffic bureaus of the department here.
